33 for protection is required, a court may:

34 (a) without notice, immediately issue an order for protection ex parte or modify an

62 [~~(h)~~] (i) if the petition requests child support or spousal support, at the hearing on the 63 petition order both parties to provide verification of current income, including year-to-date pay
64 stubs or employer statements of year-to-date or other period of earnings, as specified by the 65 court, and complete copies of tax returns from at least the most recent year.

66 (3) A court may grant the following relief in an order for protection or a modification
67 of an order after notice and hearing, whether or not the respondent appears:

68 (a) grant the relief described in Subsection (2); and

69 (b) specify arrangements for parent-time of any minor child by the respondent and 70 require supervision of that parent-time by a third party or deny parent-time if necessary to 71 protect the safety of the petitioner or child.

72 (4) Following the protective order hearing, the court shall:

73 (a) as soon as possible, deliver the order to the county sheriff for service of process;

74 (b) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order for protection is understood by the 75 petitioner, and the respondent, if present;

76 (c) transmit, by the end of the next business day after the order is issued, a copy of the 77 order for protection to the local law enforcement agency or agencies designated by the 78 petitioner; and

80 in Section 30-6-8.

81 (5) (a) Each protective order shall include two separate portions, one for provisions, the

83 violations, as follows:

84 (i) criminal offenses are those under Subsections (2)(a) through (e), and under 85 Subsection (3)(a) as it refers to Subsections (2)(a) through (e); and

86 (ii) civil offenses are those under Subsections (2)(f) [~~through (h)~~], (h), and (i), and 87 Subsection (3)(a) as it refers to Subsections (2)(f) [~~through (h)~~], (h), and (i).

88 (b) The criminal provision portion shall include a statement that violation of any
89 criminal provision is a class A misdemeanor.

90 (c) The civil provision portion shall include a notice that violation of or failure to 91 comply with a civil provision is subject to contempt proceedings.

92 (6) The protective order shall include:

93 (a) a designation of a specific date, determined by the court, when the civil portion of 94 the protective order either expires or is scheduled for review by the court, which date may not
95 exceed 150 days after the date the order is issued, unless the court indicates on the record the 96 reason for setting a date beyond 150 days;

97 (b) information the petitioner is able to provide to facilitate identification of the
98 respondent, such as Social Security number, driver license number, date of birth, address,
99 telephone number, and physical description; and

100 (c) a statement advising the petitioner that:

101 (i) after two years from the date of issuance of the protective order, a hearing may be 102 held to dismiss the criminal portion of the protective order;

103 (ii) the petitioner should, within the 30 days prior to the end of the two-year period,
104 advise the court of the petitioner's current address for notice of any hearing; and

105 (iii) the address provided by the petitioner will not be made available to the respondent.

106 (7) Child support and spouse support orders issued as part of a protective order are
107 subject to mandatory income withholding under Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 4, Income
108 Withholding in IV-D Cases, and Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 5, Income Withholding in Non 109 IV-D Cases, except when the protective order is issued ex parte.

110 (8) (a) The county sheriff that receives the order from the court, pursuant to Subsection
111 (5)(a), shall provide expedited service for orders for protection issued in accordance with this 112 chapter, and shall transmit verification of service of process, when the order has been served, to 113 the statewide domestic violence network described in Section 30-6-8.

114 (b) This section does not prohibit any law enforcement agency from providing service
115 of process if that law enforcement agency:

116 (i) has contact with the respondent and service by that law enforcement agency is 117 possible; or

118 (ii) determines that under the circumstances, providing service of process on the 119 respondent is in the best interests of the petitioner.

120 (9) (a) When an order is served on a respondent in a jail or other holding facility, the

121 law enforcement agency managing the facility shall make a reasonable effort to provide notice
122 to the petitioner at the time the respondent is released from incarceration.

123 (b) Notification of the petitioner shall consist of a good faith reasonable effort to 124 provide notification, including mailing a copy of the notification to the last-known address of 125 the victim.

126 (10) A court may modify or vacate an order of protection or any provisions in the order
127 after notice and hearing, except that the criminal provisions of a protective order may not be
128 vacated within two years of issuance unless the petitioner:

129 (a) is personally served with notice of the hearing as provided in Rules 4 and 5, Utah
130 Rules of Civil Procedure, and the petitioner personally appears before the court and gives 131 specific consent to the vacation of the criminal provisions of the protective order; or

132 (b) submits a verified affidavit, stating agreement to the vacation of the criminal 133 provisions of the protective order.

134 (11) A protective order may be modified without a showing of substantial and material
135 change in circumstances.

136 (12) Insofar as the provisions of this chapter are more specific than the Utah Rules of 137 Civil Procedure, regarding protective orders, the provisions of this chapter govern.

138 Section 2. Section 30-6-4.3 is amended to read:

139 30-6-4.3. Hearings on ex parte orders.

140 (1) (a) When a court issues an ex parte protective order the court shall set a date for a
141 hearing on the petition within 20 days after the ex parte order is issued.

142 (b) If at that hearing the court does not issue a protective order, the ex parte protective
143 order shall expire, unless it is otherwise extended by the court. Extensions beyond the 20-day
144 period may not be granted unless the respondent:

145 (i) has not been served;

146 (ii) has had the opportunity to present a defense at the hearing; or 147 (iii) requests that the ex parte order be extended.

148 (c) Under no circumstances may an ex parte order be extended beyond 180 days from 149 the date of initial issuance.

150 [~~e~~] (d) If at that hearing the court issues a protective order, the ex parte protective
151 order remains in effect until service of process of the protective order is completed.

152 [~~(d)~~] (e) A protective order issued after notice and a hearing is effective until further 153 order of the court.

154 [~~(e)~~] (f) If the hearing on the petition is heard by a commissioner, either the petitioner
155 or respondent may file an objection within ten days of the entry of the recommended order and 156 the assigned judge shall hold a hearing within 20 days of the filing of the objection.

157 (2) Upon a hearing under this section, the court may grant any of the relief described in 158 Section 30-6-4.2.

159 (3) When a court denies a petition for an ex parte protective order or a petition to 160 modify an order for protection ex parte, the court shall set the matter for hearing upon notice to 161 the respondent.

162 (4) A respondent who has been served with an ex parte protective order may seek to 163 vacate the ex parte protective order prior to the hearing scheduled pursuant to Subsection (1)(a)
164 by filing a verified motion to vacate. The respondent's verified motion to vacate and a notice
165 of hearing on that motion shall be personally served on the petitioner at least two days prior to 166 the hearing on the motion to vacate.
